Teachers' CPD programme at Flag Fen Archaeology Park

Enhance your classroom practice and creativity through working with the education team at Flag Fen Archaeology Park. Ideal as part of teacher training days, a staff meeting or an ITT event.

We are pleased to introduce CPD opportunities for primary teachers, ITT students and Secondary History teachers as part of our varied learning programme at Flag Fen Archaeology Park. These sessions aim to inspire teachers and enhance the learning of pupils.

We are happy to work with you to create a bespoke CPD experience which meets your requirements. We also have the following options available:

Flag Fen Archaeology Park – A local history study

Venue: Flag Fen Archaeology Park, PE6 7QJ

Duration: Up to a full day (10am-2.30pm) depending on your requirements.

Price: Full day - £250 + VAT per group. Half day - £200 + VAT.

This CPD experience will allow you to travel back to our prehistoric past, providing the participants with a whistle stop journey of Flag Fen through time.

This session includes a guided tour of Flag Fen Archaeology Park and group discussions led by a member of the education team followed by time spent in the Flag Fen classroom for further discussions or the planning of a local history study.

For ITT students, the Learning Co-ordinator will also familiarise students with the booking process, provide examples of paperwork they may receive when booking a school visit and share our top tips for booking a school visit.

Aims of this session:

- Develop teachers' knowledge and understanding of Flag Fen and inspire teaching of local history.
- Consider how the Flag Fen site could be used to enhance pupils learning.
- Take ideas back to the classroom.

Using objects and artefacts to enhance learning

Duration: Half day – 10am-12pm. We can discuss options to create your visit to a full day.

Price: Half day - £200 + VAT. Full day - £250 + VAT per group.

Participants will take part in a range of activities using objects from the Flag Fen handling collection. The activities are designed to generate ideas which inspire learning across different age ranges and curriculum subjects. As a whole group, we will be sharing good practice of using objects in learning.

Aims of this CPD:

- Increase confidence with using objects to support learning in the classroom.
- To understand how using objects in the classroom can assist with developing pupils' analytical, observation, communication and deeper thinking skills.
- Generate ideas to take back to the classroom.

Forest School Taster Sessions

Venue: Flag Fen Archaeology Park, PE6 7QJ

Duration: Half day – 10am-12pm. We can discuss options to create your visit to a full day.

Price: Half day - £200 + VAT. Full day - £250 + VAT per group.

This CPD experience is ideal for staff members who are considering starting a Forest School in their setting and would like to sample Forest School activities. During this session, our Forest School Leader will provide a brief overview of the Forest School ethos and participants will spend time in the great-outdoors experiencing a variety of hands-on activities typically experienced in a Forest School programme. There will also be opportunities for discussions and generating ideas for your own setting.

Aims of this CPD:

- To understand the Forest School ethos.
- Generate ideas for Forest School activities to use back at school.
- Consider how Forest School activities can be themed to complement a range of areas of the curriculum.
- Consider how Forest School activities can complement learning in different curriculum areas.
